

From Bromley Kent

Jan. 29th
1860

My dear Wendell

The measles has run like wild-fire through to home, but we are now quit of it.

We shall be delighted to see you here. Whenever you can spare the time. The our engagement which we know of you for Feb. 6th to 11th.

I shall be particularly glad to hear any of your objections to my views, when

We meet. X My Book has been far more successful a. s. t., than I dreamed of. — The ^{two} last chapters are in my opinion the strongest. —

Thank you much for offering to send me Jergin's letter & which I will return to you; I, C. Darwin, would like to see it, though he has written to me. — I hope beauty the you will be able to come here. —

Yours affect & sincerely
C. Darwin

What an interesting subject the letter is still!
