Bloom Energy is the Title Sponsor for BIOGAS AMERICAS 2023

The largest biogas conference and tradeshow in North America

April 13, 2023 - WASHINGTON – The American Biogas Council (ABC) announced today that Bloom Energy, a leader in dependable, distributed, clean energy generation and resiliency, is the title sponsor for BIOGAS AMERICAS. BIOGAS AMERICAS, the largest biogas conference and tradeshow in North America, and the annual conference of the ABC, will be in Chicago, May 15-18.

“The biogas industry is one of the fastest growing energy sectors in the U.S. and Bloom Energy is one of the key companies driving that growth with sustainability,” said Patrick Serfass, executive director of ABC. “Bloom’s fuel cells, fueled with renewable biogas, provide predictable and reliable energy while helping companies shrink their carbon footprint.”

“Bloom Energy is excited to support the industry-leading event that brings together professionals and influential decision makers from across the biogas industry,” said Chuck Moesta, VP, Waste-to-Energy. “With strong policy and legislative tailwinds, the biogas industry is poised for tremendous growth in the years ahead. At the conference and beyond, Bloom Energy aims to showcase the significant role that its industry-leading technology can play in supporting biogas developers realize the full potential of biogas.”

BIOGAS AMERICAS provides an opportunity to meet and network with nearly 2,000 like-minded leaders and decision makers across the industry. Conference registration information can be found online at BiogasAmericas.com.
