

Moving to Emeritus Faculty Membership

Upon retirement, faculty who would like to remain active with their program(s) can request that they be moved to Emeritus Faculty Membership. The faculty member should discuss this with the program director prior to their retirement, and the program director should notify the GDBBS of the move in status and the effective date.