

Māori National Overview

Māori taiohi population 2022-2032

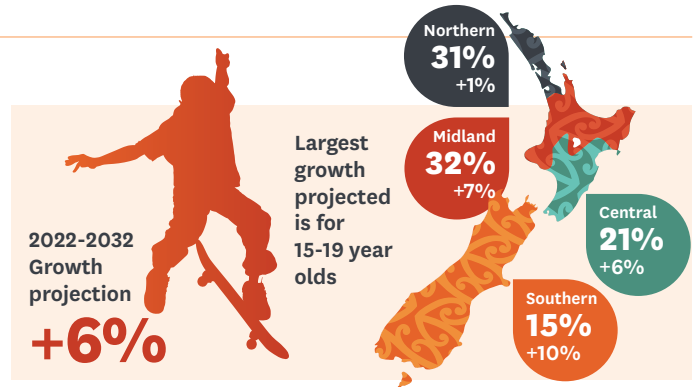

39%

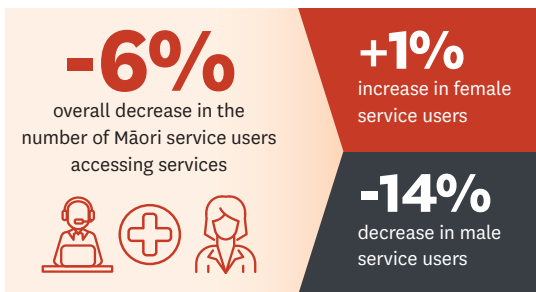

of Aotearoa NZ's Māori population are 0-19 years old
A youthful population

27%
of Aotearoa NZ's 0-19 population is Māori

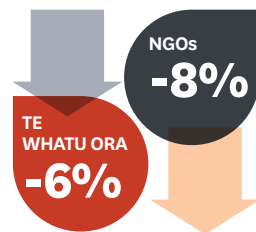

Māori taiohi service user access to ICAYMH/AOD services, 2019 to 2021:

Overall decrease seen in the 5-9-year group

Decrease in service users across all services

Southern region only area of growth

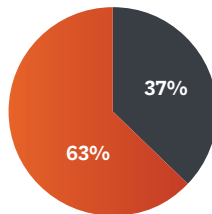

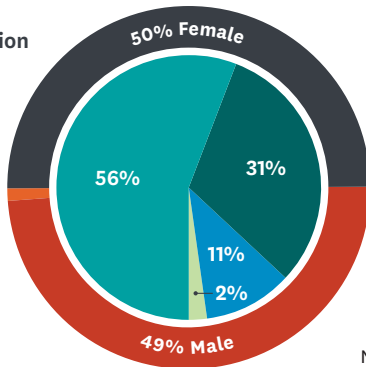

Māori pēpē, tamariki, and rangatahi service user access to ICAYMH/AOD services, 2021:

Māori made up the 2nd largest proportion of all service users:

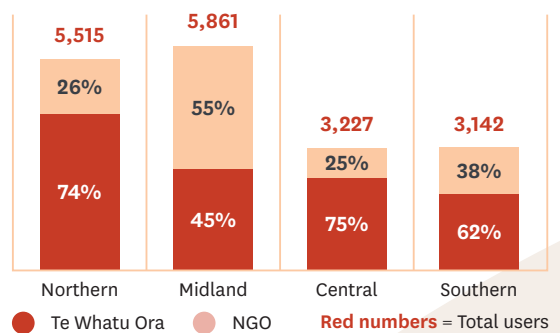

31%
(17,775)

- 15-19-year-olds
- 10-14-year-olds
- 5-9-year-olds
- 0-4-year-olds

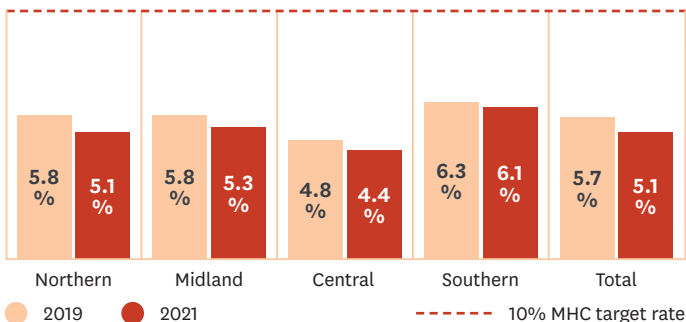

Māori largely accessed NGOs in the Midland region

Māori taiohi 0-19 yrs service users by region (2021)

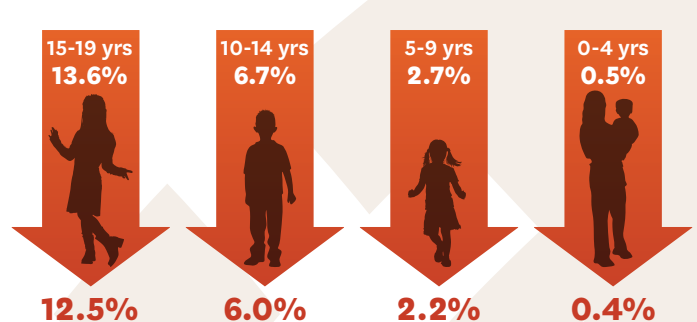

Māori access rates 2019 to 2021:

Māori taiohi user access rates (2019-2021)

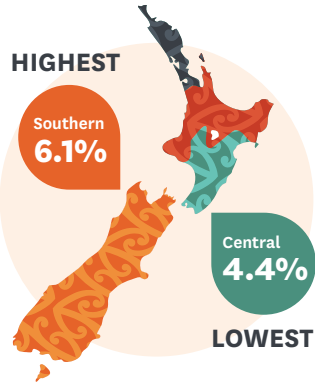

Māori taiohi user access rates by age group (2019-2021)

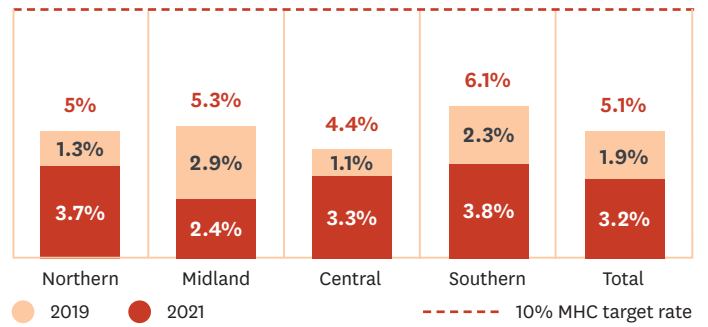

Find out more at wharaurau.org.nz/stocktake

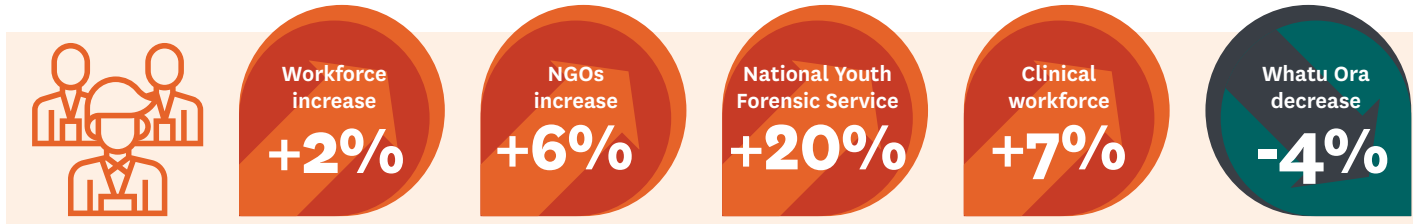

Māori access rates 2021:

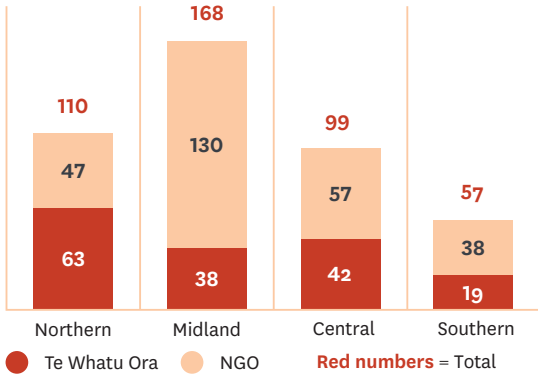

Māori taiohi users by region (2021)

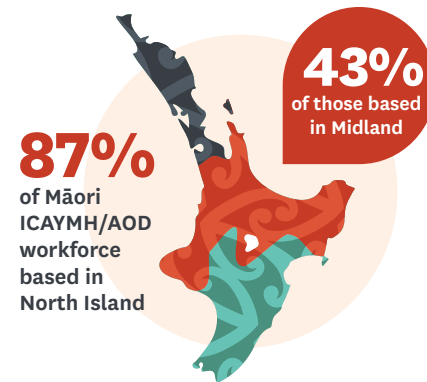

Māori ICAYMH/AOD workforce, 2020 to 2022/23

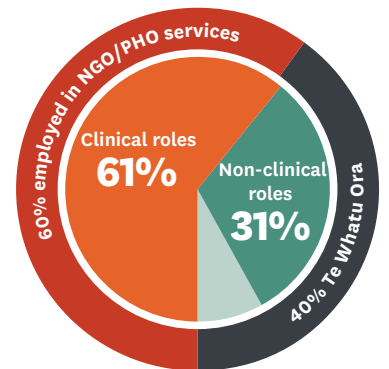

Māori ICAYMH/AOD workforce by region (2022/23)*

Workforce distribution (2022/23)

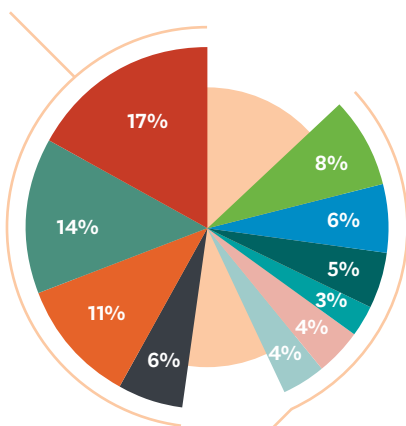

Māori ICAYMH/AOD workforce employers and roles (2022/23)

Clinical roles (61% of total) comprised:

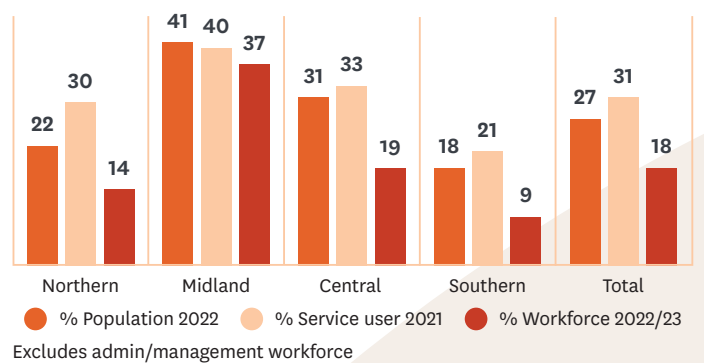

- Nurses
- Social workers
- Alcohol & drugs practitioners
- Psychologists

Non-clinical roles (31% of total) comprised:

- Mental health support workers
- Cultural roles
- Youth workers
- Peer support workers
- Management
- Administration

Māori taiohi service user and workforce comparisons (2021-22)

Māori ICAYMH/AOD workforce capability development needs:

National organisational Real Skills Plus competency data (March 2022 to March 2023) showed further development needed in:

- Core knowledge in intervention (44%) and assessment (37%) (specifically leadership knowledge and knowledge working with tamariki)
- Core skill development for intervention (38%) and assessment (31%) skills (specifically skills for working with taiohi and whānau)

Find out more at whaurau.org.nz/stocktake

