Dear Professor Ferrater-Mera:

Thank you very much for your letter of September 30 and for the articles enclosed. Again I must assure you that I understand and share your point of view in regard to having other articles in Spanish appear before one of your own does; nevertheless I highly appreciate your giving us permission to use one of your essays at this time, if other contributions are not immediately forthcoming.

When we meet at Purdue we can discuss which of the two articles will be used if indeed in the meantime nothing comes in from abroad.

Under separate cover I have sent you some stationery and will be happy to supply more as you indicate a need.

Hoping to see you soon. Very best wishes.

Sincerely Yours,

Joseph J. Kockelmans
