

David Lang, MD FAAAAI

Speaker Biography

David Lang received his M.D. from University of Michigan, completed Internal Medicine training at Henry Ford Hospital, Allergy/Immunology fellowship at Scripps Clinic, and Medical Education Fellowship at Cleveland Clinic.

Dr. Lang has carried out a number of research projects, including studies of aspirin exacerbated respiratory disease, asthma, anaphylaxis, drug allergy, and urticaria. He has published numerous articles, chapters, and abstracts.

Dr. Lang served as Chair of the Department of Allergy & Clinical Immunology at Cleveland Clinic from 2002-2022, and is a Past President of the American Academy of Allergy, Asthma and Immunology. He has chaired or served on numerous AAAAI committees/task forces, formerly served as Co-Chair of the Joint Task Force on Practice Parameters, and was a member of this Task Force from 2001-2018. He currently serves on the Primary Care and Chronic Illness Standing Committee at the National Quality Forum, and previously was Co-Chair of the Pulmonary and Critical Care Standing Committee.

Dr. Lang's medical career has been supported by his wife, Marjory, and children, Madelyn and Jonathan. He appreciates support from family, friends, and colleagues, and is grateful for opportunities to contribute to the field of Allergy/Immunology.