

Michael Tankersley, MD MBA

Speaker Biography

After 22 years of active duty military service as an allergist/immunologist, Dr. Tankersley retired from the Air Force in 2015 achieving the rank of Colonel. While active duty, he served as Program Director for the Air Force's fellowship program at Wilford Hall in San Antonio, Texas. After retiring from the Air Force, he returned to his hometown of Memphis, Tennessee and opened his own allergy practice. He is currently the Founder and Medical Director of The Tankersley Clinic, PLLC and Founder and CEO of Tankersley Healthcare Consulting. He is also holds the rank of Professor in the Departments of Medicine, Pediatrics and Otolaryngology at the University of Tennessee Health Science Center in Memphis. He completed his MBA in the Physician Executive MBA (PEMBA) program through the University of TN, Knoxville.