Sober Living Assistance

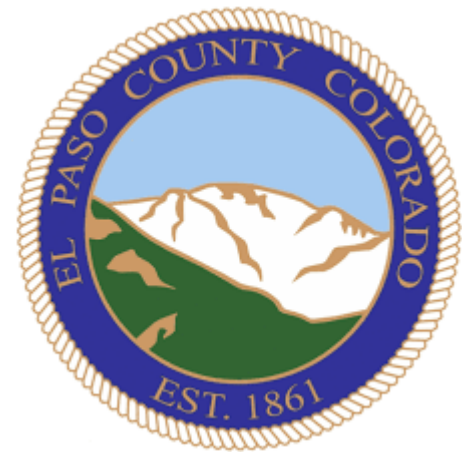

- The average length of stay in the sober living home is 3-6 months and sober living homes range between $650-$800 per month (average: $725).

Are you looking for assistance to live sober?

- There are several sober living facilities that provide supportive sober living help to recovering adults practicing abstinence and sobriety before returning to independent living.
- Pretrial Services may be able to provide financial assistance for up to three months.

Sober living facilities assist people who need stable housing, while working to obtain and maintain recovery from drug and alcohol use.
