

SOLUTION BRIEF

Supplier Intelligence for Due Diligence

Explore and evaluate suppliers in hours instead of weeks with reliable and comprehensive data.

Challenges

Procurement and risk professionals spend considerable time conducting web searches, gathering data (e.g., financial, operational, ESG, cyber related) for vendor sourcing and supplier due diligence. Obtaining reliable, comprehensive, and validated data is crucial; without it, insights, alerts, and decision-making can be compromised, increasing business risks.

By providing timely, accurate, and validated data in one easy-to-use platform, Craft saves users considerable time and boosts decision-making confidence.

Craft makes it easy to access and understand supplier data

With 360-degree visibility into your supplier networks, you can eliminate manual web searches, save time, and make smarter, faster supplier decisions with more accurate information. Streamline and shorten procurement cycle times with accurate and relevant data, insights, alerts, and action plans.
