JOIN USIPA

USIPA is your partner for industry insights, education, business development, and advocacy focused on a net-zero future.

WHO WE ARE

USIPA is working to deliver a net- zero future through sustainable forestry.

We are a not-for-profit trade association that promotes sustainability and safety in the US wood energy industry. We advocate for the wood energy sector as an effective solution to climate change, and we support renewable energy policy development around the globe.

AT A GLANCE

Our members are drawn from across the wood pellet export industry.

Our members include pellet producers, traders, equipment manufacturers, bulk shippers, and service providers. USIPA was formed in 2011 and is based in Washington DC.

Global Statistics & Projections

The US is the world's leading exporter of biomass in the form of wood pellets¹

USIPA members exported nearly 9 million metric tons of wood pellets in 2022 valued at $1.5 billion

US wood pellet exports have grown by 498% since 2012²

Global demand for wood pellets is projected to increase over $24 billion by 2033³
