

Polyomino site-perimeter

Define the halo of a polyomino to be the set of squares that are adjacent to the cells of the polyomino without belonging to the polyomino itself. The site-perimeter of a polyomino is the number of squares in the halo. The green squares in these illustrations are the haloes of sizes 4 through 8.

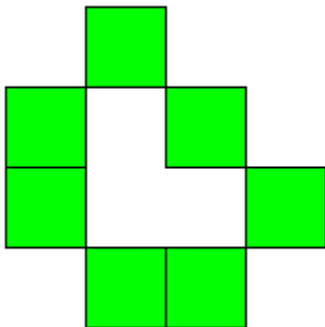

Size 4

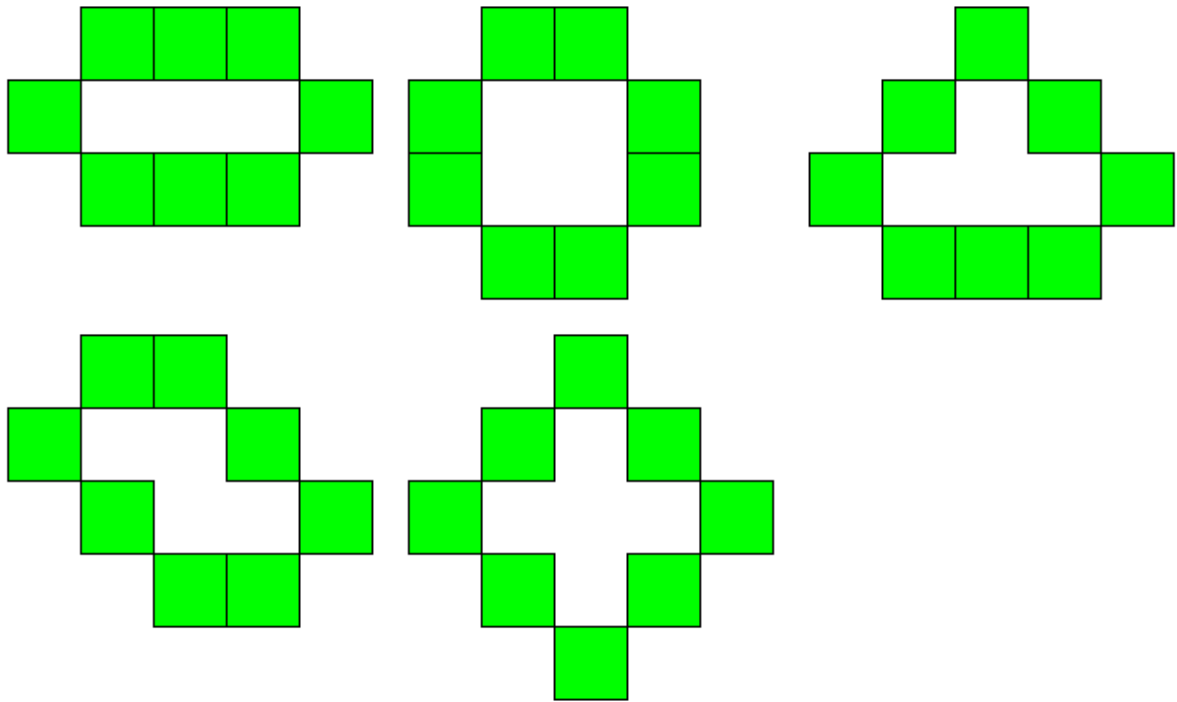

Size 6

Size 7

Size 8

Size 9

