

In 2014, the Democratic Republic of Congo (DRC) experienced a confined outbreak of Ebola.

Daily Incidence of New Cases

EARLY OUTBREAK

Disease propagates contagiously.

FOUR WEEKS

Control interventions in place.

END OF OUTBREAK

Contagious spread halts.

JUL

AUG

SEP

OCT

Mathematical modeling suggests that the rapid response limited further spread of Ebola in DRC within 4 weeks.

CONCLUSION