SAFE SPACE

Safe Space is a dedicated initiative for lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and queer or questioning (LGBTQ) concerns.

Whether you are a member or an ally of the LGBTQ community, you are welcome.

Once you join Safe Space, virtual weekly group meetings throughout the semester will facilitate ongoing discussions on various topics such as:

- negotiating different sexualities within our Caribbean
- context
- exploring the fluidity of gender identity
- dating and relationship dynamics
- relationships with family and peers
- sex
- self esteem
- body image
- religion.... and more.

We are committed to inclusivity in order to facilitate open dialogue on any and all LGBTQ matters.
