

Jordan

Women, Business and the Law 2024 (WBL2024) presents an index covering 190 economies and structured around the life cycle of a working woman. In total, 35 questions are scored across eight indicators. Overall scores are then calculated by taking the average of each indicator, with 100 representing the highest possible score. Data refer to the laws and regulations that are applicable to the main business city (Amman). Different rules may apply in other jurisdictions so local legislation should be reviewed. Based on this approach, Jordan scores 59.4 out of 100.0. The overall score for Jordan is higher than the regional average observed across the Middle East and North Africa (54.7). Within the Middle East and North Africa region, the maximum score observed is 91.3 (Malta).

Jordan - Scores for Women, Business and the Law 2024

Relative Strengths

When it comes to laws affecting women's pay, and constraints on women starting and running a business, Jordan gets a perfect score.

Areas for Improvement

When it comes to constraints on freedom of movement, laws affecting women's decisions to work, constraints related to marriage, laws affecting women's work after having children, gender differences in property and inheritance, and laws affecting the size of a woman's pension, Jordan could consider reforms to improve legal equality for women.

For example, one of the lowest scores for Jordan is on the indicator measuring constraints related to marriage (the WBL2024 Marriage indicator). To improve on the Marriage indicator, Jordan may wish to consider no longer requiring a married woman to obey her husband, allowing women to be head of household in the same way as men, allowing women to obtain a divorce in the same way as men, and giving women the same rights to remarry as men.

Recent Reforms

During the past year (October 2nd, 2022 to October 1st, 2023), Jordan prohibited gender-based discrimination in employment and enacted legislation protecting a woman from sexual harassment in employment, including criminal penalties for such conduct. Jordan removed restrictions on a woman's employment in industrial jobs.
