

Looking forward to the IAAF World U20 Championships Bydgoszcz 2016

Less than three weeks from now, the world's best young athletes will head to Poland for the IAAF World U20 Championships Bydgoszcz 2016.

It has already been quite a year for U20 athletes.

After several world U20 indoor records fell at the start of the year, young athletes have continued to break new ground well into the summer with many U20 records and U18 bests being established at the world, area and national level.

Some of the top teenage talents may even go on to compete at this year's Olympic Games in Rio.

It sets the scene for what looks set to be a memorable championships in Bydgoszcz.
