Request for Access to CDOT Programs & Activities

It is CDOT's objective to provide access to CDOT programs and activities for all individuals.

The following services are available:

Interpretation & Translation Services: CDOT provides reasonable language assistance free of charge upon request. Contact the Office of Environmental Justice & Equity to make translation or interpretation requests related to any CDOT public meeting or service.

Access for the Visually and Hearing Impaired: Dial 711 or (800) 659-3656 to reach Relay Colorado. Relay Colorado is a free service that provides full telephone access to people who are deaf, hard of hearing, deaf-blind or speech-disabled.

Accessible Meeting Locations & Facilities: CDOT strives to provide services and hold meetings in locations accessible to people with disabilities. Contact the Office of Environmental Justice & Equity at dot_civilrights@state.co.us to make an accommodation request.

Your Rights Against Discrimination

The Colorado Department of Transportation operates its programs and services without regard to race, color, national origin, sex, age and disability. Anyone who believes they have been excluded from participation in, denied the benefits of, or otherwise subjected to discrimination under any CDOT program or activity because of their race, color, national origin, age, sex or disability may file a discrimination complaint with CDOT, the Federal Highway Administration or the Federal Transit Administration.

To file a complaint, please contact one of the following:
