

Senior Chief Malia Chasteen
Command Senior Chief
Base Los Angeles Long Beach

Senior Chief Malia Chasteen assumed the duties Command Senior Chief, Base Los Angeles Long Beach July, 2022. Her primary responsibility is to advise Commander Lisa Sharkey, the Commanding Officer of Base Los Angeles Long Beach, on all issues and initiatives pertaining to all Coast Guard and their families within Base Los Angeles Long Beach.

Senior Chief's previous assignments include Officer in Charge Coast Guard Station Maui, Hawaii; Officer in Charge, CGC TACKLE, Rockland, ME; Executive Petty Officer, Station Port Angeles, Port Angeles, WA; Sector Los Angeles/Long Beach, San Pedro, CA; Operations Petty Officer, Executive Petty Officer, CGC HALIBUT, Marina Del Rey, CA; Station Channel Islands Harbor, Oxnard, CA; CGC PIKE, Yerba Buena Island, CA; CGC RUSH, Honolulu, HI; CGC WASHINGTON, Honolulu, HI.

Senior Chief Chasteen is a graduate of Senior Enlisted Leadership Course class 88, Chief Petty Officer's Academy Class 232 and completed CCTI in 2017. She is a member of the Diversity and Inclusion Education and Awareness Program, a CG Change Agent and Diversity and Inclusion facilitator and has earned a certificate as a Coach. She is a graduate of various service schools including Boat Forces Command Cadre, National Aids to Navigation Schools, the STAR Maritime Institute and is currently enrolled in American Military University pursuing a degree in Communications.

Originally from Cape Cod, MA, Senior Chief Chasteen enlisted in the United States Coast Guard in April 2003. Her personal awards include Coast Guard Commendation Medals, Coast Guard Achievement Medals, and Letter of Commendation, all with the operational distinguishing device. Senior Chief Chasteen received the Stars and Stripes leadership service award for the Coast Guard in 2019. In addition to various other personal and unit level awards, she wears the Officer in Charge Afloat and Ashore device for the Multi Mission specialty, the Permanent Cutterman insignia, and the Advanced Boat Forces insignia.

Senior Chief Chasteen is the proud mother of eight year old son Miles.