

BIOGRAPHY

UNITED STATES COAST GUARD

Lieutenant Commander Chris Greenough

Executive Officer

Base Los Angeles/ Long Beach

LCDR Chris Greenough serves as Executive Officer of Coast Guard Base Los Angeles/ Long Beach providing premier mission support to 17 tenant commands and regional staffs, 43 Southern California area units, and over 2,200 members. Services include medical, finance, engineering, purchasing, electronic pay administration, education, and worklife support. His most recent assignment was Assistant Program Manager for Production within the Polar Security Cutter program office at Coast Guard Headquarters. Responsible for Cost, Schedule, and Performance on a $3.1 Billion, DHS Level I program.

Prior afloat assignments include Engineer Officer aboard U.S. Coast Guard Cutter ESCANABA in Boston, Massachusetts and Student Engineer aboard U.S. Coast Guard Cutter CONFIDENCE in Cape Canaveral, Florida. In addition to his time at sea he was a Patrol Boat Product Line Port Engineer responsible for contracted maintenance in Southern California, Pacific Islands, as well as Patrol Forces Southwest Asia in Manama, Bahrain.

Receiving his Bachelor of Science Degree in Naval Architecture & Marine Engineering from the US Coast Guard Academy in 2007. In 2014 he received dual Master of Science Engineering Degrees from the University of Michigan in Naval Architecture & Marine Engineering and in Industrial & Operations Engineering.

LCDR Greenough is married to the former Sarah Roberto and they have a son, Oren and a daughter Esme. They currently reside in Long Beach, CA. In his spare time LCDR Greenough enjoys spending time with family & friends, completing home improvement projects, and using any remaining seconds on get out on the water to include sailing, surfing, and wing-foiling.

