

Master Chief Petty Officer Ann M. Logan
Command Master Chief
Deputy Commandant for Operations

Master Chief Ann Logan, a native of New Hampshire, enlisted in the Coast Guard in October 1993 on Cape Cod, Massachusetts, and most recently served as the Command Master Chief for the Director of Operational Logistics in Norfolk, VA. She previously served as the Command Master Chief for the Coast Guard Aviation Logistics Center in Elizabeth City, NC. During this tour, she also temporarily served as the Command Master Chief for the Aviation Technical Training Center.

Her prior assignments include: Command Senior Chief and Incident Management Division Manager - Marine Safety Unit Port Arthur, TX; Instructor - Chief Petty Officer Academy, Petaluma, CA; Response

Department Chief - Sector Northern New England, South Portland, ME; Lead Petty Officer - Marine Safety Detachment, Unalaska, AK; Lead Petty Officer - Marine Safety Unit, Valdez, AK; Port State Control Examiner and Trainer - Marine Safety Office Puget Sound, Seattle, WA; Pollution Investigator - Marine Safety Office, San Diego, CA and Marine Safety Field Office, Coram, NY; Station Bellingham, WA; and the USCGC POLAR STAR (WAGB-10), Seattle, WA.

Master Chief Logan is a graduate of the Coast Guard Chief Petty Officer Academy Class CLXI (161), and the Coast Guard Senior Enlisted Leadership Course. Her numerous awards include the Meritorious Service Medal, four Coast Guard Commendation Medals, and four Coast Guard Achievement Medals. She earned the Marine Safety Insignia during her first tour as an MST3. She also received the Military Outstanding Volunteer Service Medal for her dedicated service as an officer in the Chief Petty Officer's Association (CPOA) spanning four chapters over fifteen years

In April 2021, Master Chief Logan was selected as the second Silver Ancient Trident; an honor presented to the enlisted member with the longest time serving in the Marine Safety field, and whose personal character and performance standards exemplify the most venerable practitioners of Marine Safety.

She has earned an Associate's Degree in Biology, and will soon complete her Bachelor's Degree in Science.

Master Chief Logan is married to MKC Robert Vernon, Jr. (now retired) of Chesapeake, VA, and has two wonderful step-children, Sarah (30), and Matthew (24).