RESPONSIBILITIES

Unless otherwise expressly provided below, the responsibilities in this enclosure may be delegated in writing.

1. IG DoD. The IG DoD evaluates and investigates, or oversees DoD Component IG complaint evaluations and investigations of, allegations that the prohibitions of reprisal or restriction of this issuance have been violated. To ensure compliance with this issuance and section 1034 of Reference (b), the IG DoD:

a. Evaluates a complaint of reprisal or restriction submitted to the IG DoD by a Service member to determine if there is sufficient evidence to warrant an investigation. Such a complaint may be submitted to the IG DoD either directly or indirectly, as detailed in sections 3-5 of this enclosure. Within 60 days after receipt of a complaint, the IG DoD:

- (1) Closes the complaint;
- (2) Initiates an investigation; or
- (3) Requests that the DoD Component IG initiate an investigation.

b. Reviews recommended complaint evaluation determinations by DoD Component IGs that find that an allegation is not supported by evidence and should be closed. Notifies the DoD Component IG of approval or concerns.

c. Ensures the evaluating or investigating DoD Component IG:

(1) Is outside the immediate chain of command (as established under DoD Component regulations) of both the Service member submitting the allegation and the individual or individuals alleged to have taken the retaliatory action; or

(2) Is at least one organization higher in the chain of command than the organization of the Service member submitting the allegation and the individual or individuals alleged to have taken the retaliatory action.

d. Reviews the results of each investigation conducted by DoD Component IGs. Consistent with section 5 of this enclosure:

- (1) Approves the results; or
- (2) Ensures the DoD Component IG corrects inadequacies or initiates a follow-up investigation; and

(3) Notifies the DoD Component IG of approval.

e. Reports the results of an IG DoD investigation not later than 180 days after the commencement of a reprisal or restriction investigation. The report will include:

(1) A thorough review of the facts and circumstances relevant to the allegation(s), relevant documents acquired during the course of investigation, and summaries or transcripts of interviews conducted.

(2) Recommendations for an appropriate disposition of the allegation(s) and, in a substantiated case, recommendations for an appropriate remedy for the Service member.

f. If the report on the results of the IG DoD investigation cannot be issued according to paragraph 1.e. of this enclosure, not later than 180 days after the commencement of a reprisal or restriction investigation, and every 180 days thereafter until the transmission of the report, notifies the Under Secretary of Defense for Personnel and Readiness (USD(P&R)), the Secretary of the Military Department concerned, and the Service member of the reasons for the delay and an estimate of the time remaining until the report will be issued.

g. Conducts or requests a DoD Component IG to conduct a separate investigation of the underlying allegations contained in the protected communication when:

(1) An investigation has not been initiated; or

(2) An investigation of the allegation(s) contained in the protected communication has been conducted, and the IG DoD determines that the investigation was biased or inadequate.

h. Maintains reports on the results of the IG DoD investigation of reprisal, restriction, or underlying allegations and is responsible for transmitting the reports to the USD(P&R), the Secretary of the Military Department concerned, and the Service member not later than 30 days after the completion of the investigation; and when requested, transmits a copy of the documents acquired during the investigation and summaries or transcripts of testimony to the Service member. Ensures the copy of the report and supporting documents released to the Service member includes the maximum disclosure of information possible, with the exception of information that is not required to be disclosed in accordance with section 552 of Title 5, U.S.C. (Reference (c)).

i. Advises the Service member concerned that he or she may request review of the matter by a Board for Correction of Military Records (BCMR).

j. At the request of a BCMR, submits a copy of the report on the results of the investigation and gathers further evidence.

2. USD(P&R). On behalf of the Secretary of Defense, the USD(P&R):

a. Reviews reports on the results of investigations conducted pursuant to this issuance and section 1034 of Reference (b).

b. Within 90 days of receipt of an appeal of a decision by the Service member who alleged reprisal or restriction pursuant to this issuance:

(1) Reviews the final decision of the Secretary of the Military Department concerned on applications for correction of military records decided in accordance with this issuance and section 1034 of Reference (b).

(2) Decides whether to uphold or reverse the decision of the Secretary of the Military Department concerned. The decision of the USD(P&R) is final within the DoD.

c. If necessary, requests the Secretary of the Military Department concerned comment on evidence considered by a BCMR when the Secretary of Defense is requested by the Service member who alleged reprisal or restriction to reconsider the final decision of the Secretary of the Military Department concerned.

d. Notifies the IG DoD and Military Department IG concerned of decisions made on appeals pursuant to this issuance to the Secretary of Defense.

3. DoD COMPONENT HEADS. With the exception of the DoD Intelligence Component heads, the DoD Component heads:

a. Maintain regulations governing civilian employees that make reprisal and restriction the basis for appropriate disciplinary action.

b. Direct that all allegations submitted in accordance with section 1034 of Reference (b) are evaluated in a thorough, objective, and timely manner.

c. Direct that their respective IGs:

(1) Establish internal procedures for receiving, evaluating, reporting, and investigating pursuant to this issuance and section 1034 of Reference (b) allegations that the prohibitions of reprisal and restriction have been violated.

(2) Make proper complaint receipt notification to the IG DoD:

(a) In general, notify the IG DoD within 30 days after receiving a reprisal or restriction allegation. Notify the IG DoD within 10 days after receiving a reprisal or restriction allegation involving: sexual assault, matters of known congressional interest, or senior officials as defined in Reference (d).

(b) For allegations filed with a DoD Component IG, the timeframe for notifying the IG DoD commences once the complainant has completed applicable DoD Component IG complaint filing procedures.

(3) Evaluate a complaint of reprisal or restriction to determine if there is sufficient evidence to warrant an investigation and, within 60 days after receipt of the complaint, recommend either to close it or to initiate an investigation.

(4) Forward to the IG DoD any recommended determination that there is not sufficient evidence to warrant investigation and it should be closed. If the IG DoD agrees with the determination, the DoD Component IG will inform the Service member making the allegation.

(5) Initiate an investigation when it has been determined that initiating an investigation is warranted or upon the request of the IG DoD. Forward the report on the results of the investigation to the IG DoD for approval.

(6) Additionally, apply the provisions of DoDD 5505.06 (Reference (d)) when a reprisal or restriction allegation is made against a senior official of the DoD.

d. Ensure the evaluating and investigating IG:

(1) Is outside the immediate chain of command (as established under DoD Component regulations) of both the Service member submitting the allegation(s) and the individual(s) alleged to have taken the retaliatory action; or

(2) Is at least one organization higher in the chain of command than the organization of the Service member submitting the allegation and the individual or individuals alleged to have taken the retaliatory action.

e. Submit a report on the results of the investigation to the IG DoD not later than 150 days after the commencement of a reprisal or restriction investigation. The report will include:

(1) A thorough review of the facts and circumstances relevant to the allegation(s), relevant documents acquired during the course of investigation, and summaries or transcripts of interviews conducted.

(2) Recommendations for an appropriate remedy for the Service member in a substantiated case.

f. If the report on the results of the investigation cannot be issued according to paragraph 3.e. of this enclosure, not later than 180 days after the commencement of a reprisal or restriction investigation, and every 180 days thereafter until the transmission of the report, submit a notice on the investigation to the USD(P&R), the IG DoD, the Secretary of the Military Department concerned, and the Service member. Each notice will include:

(1) A description of the current progress of the investigation.

(2) An estimate of the time remaining until the completion of the investigation and the transmittal of the report on the results of the investigation to the Service member.

g. Conduct a separate investigation of the underlying allegations contained in the protected communication when an investigation has not been initiated or an investigation of the allegation(s) contained in the protected communication has been conducted, and the DoD Component IG or IG DoD determines that the investigation was biased or inadequate.

h. Transmit a report on the results of the investigation of reprisal, restriction, or underlying allegations to the USD(P&R), the Secretary of the Military Department concerned, and the Service member not later than 30 days after IG DoD approval of the results of the investigation. If requested, transmit a copy of the documents acquired during the investigation and summaries or transcripts of testimony to the Service member. Ensure the copy of the report and supporting documents released to the Service member include the maximum disclosure of information possible, with the exception of information not required to be disclosed pursuant to section 552 of Reference (c).

i. Advise the Service member that he or she may request review of the matter by a BCMR.

j. At the request of a BCMR, ensure the investigating IG submits a copy of the report on the results of the investigation or gathers further evidence.

k. Ensure that the subjects of reprisal or restriction investigations conducted in accordance with this issuance are afforded procedural protections, including the opportunity to present matters on their behalf, incident to administrative or disciplinary action, under DoD Component regulations or other established administrative procedures governing such action.

l. Publicize the content of this issuance to ensure that members of the Military Services and other DoD personnel fully understand its scope and application.

4. DoD INTELLIGENCE COMPONENT HEADS. The DoD Intelligence Component heads:

a. Maintain regulations governing civilian employees that make reprisal and restriction the basis for appropriate disciplinary action.

b. Publicize the content of this issuance to ensure that Service members and other DoD personnel fully understand its scope and application.

5. DoD INTELLIGENCE COMPONENT IGs. The DoD Intelligence Component IGs:

a. With regard to allegations of reprisal and restriction that the DoD Intelligence Component IG receives directly:

(1) Notify the IG DoD of any non-frivolous allegations involving Service members generally within 10 working days, unless otherwise agreed to by the IG DoD and the respective DoD Intelligence Component IG, and provide a copy of the complaint to the IG DoD.

(2) Unless the IG DoD, after consultation with the DoD Intelligence Component IG, assumes sole investigative responsibility:

(a) Initiate an investigation into the allegations; or

(b) If the DoD Intelligence Component IG determines that there is not sufficient evidence to warrant an investigation or an investigation is not practicable, notify and coordinate with the IG DoD to determine the appropriate course of action.

(3) For cases investigated, forward the results of the investigation and any requested final report and supporting documents to the IG DoD for review. Coordinate with the IG DoD to determine the appropriate course of action for a case that the IG DoD review determines requires further action.

b. With regard to allegations of reprisal and restriction that the IG DoD refers for action to the DoD Intelligence Component IGs:

(1) If the DoD Intelligence Component IG determines that there is not sufficient evidence to warrant an investigation or an investigation is not practicable, notify and coordinate with the IG DoD to determine the appropriate course of action.

(2) Where the DoD Intelligence Component IG determines that there is sufficient evidence to warrant an investigation, conduct an investigation and provide the report of investigation to the IG DoD for review within 5 working days of completion. If the IG DoD determines further action is required, coordinate with the IG DoD to determine the appropriate course of action.

c. Will not conduct a separate or parallel investigation of a reprisal or restriction matter arising at one or more of the DoD Intelligence Components (as defined in the Glossary) regarding matters within the authorities of the IG DoD and over which the IG DoD elects to exercise jurisdiction.

(1) Similarly, where the DoD Intelligence Component's IG investigates a reprisal or restriction matter without the involvement of the IG DoD, the IG DoD will not conduct a separate or parallel investigation of the same matter.

(2) However, when an IG DoD review of a DoD Intelligence Component's IG investigation determines the matter requires further action, after coordination, the IG DoD may exercise jurisdiction over the entire matter.

6. SECRETARIES OF THE MILITARY DEPARTMENTS. In addition to the responsibilities in section 3 of this enclosure, the Secretaries of the Military Departments:

a. Maintain regulations that make punishable, under Article 92 of chapter 47 of Reference (b) (also known and referred to in this issuance as “the Uniform Code of Military Justice (UCMJ)”), any violation of the prohibitions of restriction by persons subject to the UCMJ.

b. Maintain regulations requiring timely notification by commanders to the command IG of complaints alleging retaliation, reprisal, or restriction in violation of Articles 132 or 92 of the UCMJ, for any such complaints made to persons or entities other than an IG.

c. Not later than 30 days after receiving a report on the results of the investigation from or approved by the IG DoD of a substantiated allegation, determine whether corrective, disciplinary, or remedial action should be taken. If the Secretary of the Military Department concerned determines that such action should be taken, they are to take appropriate action.

d. When a prohibition has been violated:

(1) Order the record of the Service member corrected, including referring the report on the results of the investigation to the appropriate BCMR for review.

(2) Take any appropriate corrective or disciplinary action against the individual who committed the reprisal or restriction. Submit a report to the IG DoD on the corrective or disciplinary action taken within 10 days of taking action.

e. If an order for corrective, disciplinary, or remedial action is not appropriate, not later than 30 days after making the determination:

(1) Provide the Secretary of Defense and the Service member a notice of the determination and the reasons for not taking action.

(2) When appropriate, refer the report on the results of the investigation to the appropriate BCMR for further review.

f. Based on the report on the results of the investigation, take corrective or remedial action, including assisting members in preparing an application to a BCMR when implementation of the recommendations of the report requires action by a BCMR. Submit a report to the IG DoD on the corrective or remedial action taken within 10 days of taking action.

g. Ensure their respective BCMRs:

(1) Consider applications for the correction of military records at the request of a Service member who alleged reprisal or restriction.

(2) Establish procedures to resolve such an application that as a minimum include:

(a) Reviewing the report submitted to the Secretary of the Military Department concerned.

(b) Requesting that the IG DoD or the Military Department IG concerned gather further evidence if needed.

(c) As appropriate, taking depositions, conducting an evidentiary hearing, examining and cross-examining witnesses, and receiving oral arguments.

(d) As appropriate, recommending to the Secretary of the Military Department concerned that disciplinary action be taken against the individual responsible for violations of the prohibitions.

(e) If the BCMR holds a hearing, the Service member who filed the application:

1. May be provided with representation by a judge advocate if:

a. The IG investigation finds the prohibition of reprisal has been violated.

b. The Judge Advocate General concerned determines that the Service member would benefit from judge advocate assistance to ensure proper presentation of the legal issues in the case.

c. The Service member is not represented by outside counsel.

2. The Service member may examine witnesses through depositions, serve interrogatories, and request the production of evidence, including evidence in an IG investigative record not included in the report released to the Service member.

h. Issue a final decision on an application submitted to a BCMR in accordance with this issuance within 180 days after the application is filed. If the Secretary of the Military Department fails to issue a final decision within that time, the Service member will be deemed to have exhausted the administrative remedies afforded by section 1552 of Reference (b).

i. Advise the Service member who alleged reprisal or restriction that he or she may request review of the matter by the USD(P&R) on behalf of the Secretary of Defense. The request must be made within 90 days after receipt of the Secretary of the Military Department's decision.

j. Order such action, consistent with the limitations in section 1552 and 1553 of Reference (b), to correct the record of a personnel action prohibited by section 1034 of Reference (b).

k. Notify the IG DoD, the USD(P&R), and the Military Department IG concerned of a decision on an application for the correction of military records received from a Service member pursuant to this issuance.
