The Junior Reserve Officers' Training Corps (JROTC) Program is a world-class youth leader development program authorized by Congress and executed as a partnership between the Department of Defense, the military services and local School District High Schools. JROTC Instructors are retired service members and/or veterans employed as a faculty member by your local school district who are subject to the same laws, regulations and policies as other teachers within the District. A purpose of the JROTC is to instill in students in the United States secondary educational institutions the values of citizenship, service to the United States (including an introduction to service opportunities in military, national, and public service), and personal responsibility and a sense of accomplishment.

The purpose of this form is to share the expectations of the program, the expected behavior, and unacceptable behavior of all students and instructors taking part in the JROTC program. By initialling next to each statement, you acknowledge and agree to the expected/prohibited behavior explained in each section.

Students not possessing suitable attire, should immediately notify their JROTC instructor and school representative of the situation.

a.3. Physical Fitness: Students enrolling in JROTC should expect to participate in activities that demand varying physical levels.
