ROUTINE USES: Disclosure of records are generally permitted under 5 U.S.C. 522a(b) of the Privacy Act of 1974, as amended. Pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 522a(b)(3), records may be disclosed as a routine use to contractors, grantees, experts, consultants, students, and others performing or working on a contract, service, grant, cooperative agreement, or other assignment for the federal government when necessary to accomplish an agency function related to this system of records. A complete list of routine uses may be found in the applicable System of Records Notice, DoD-0008, Freedom of Information Act and Privacy Act Records (FOIA/PA Records) at: <https://www.federalregister.gov/d/2021-27710>

DISCLOSURE: Voluntary; however, failure to provide the requested information could result in your request not being processed.

HOW TO USE THIS FORM

Fields on this form should be used to request information maintained in the Military OneSource electronic Case Management System (DPR 45: Military OneSource Business Operations Information System) as outlined below.

In order to obtain the most complete record possible, all individuals who are the subject of, or a participant listed within, a record must submit a signed copy of this form providing consent to the release of information maintained about themselves within the records. Other participants may include a current or former spouse, current or former partner, child, other family member, etc. who participated in non-medical counseling or another Military OneSource service with the subject. For couples or family sessions, this means all participants should submit a signed request; otherwise information within your record may be redacted to protect the privacy of these other participants. For participants who are minor dependent(s) or ward(s), a request should be submitted on their behalf by a legal guardian.

For all requests, complete the following sections:

- Section 1
- Section 2
- Section 3

For requests for records involving minor dependent(s) or ward(s), the following section must also be completed:

- Section 4

Part 1 – Request Details

Section 1 – Subject of the Records Request

The individual to whom a record pertains is described as the subject of a record. If you are requesting information from your own Military OneSource Record or related to your own participation in Military OneSource services, the subject is yourself. If you are requesting information maintained in a minor dependent or ward's Military OneSource Record or related to a minor dependent or ward's participation in Military OneSource services, the subject is the minor dependent or ward. All individuals who are the subject of, or participant listed within, a record, must submit a copy of this form signed by themselves, or by their legal guardian, as appropriate. Other participants may include a current or former spouse, current or former partner, child, other family member, etc. who participated in non-medical counseling or another Military OneSource service with the subject
