Speaker Evans: "We shall be led in the prayer today by Wayne Padget, the Assistant Doorkeeper. Members and guests are asked to refrain from starting their laptops, turn off all cell phones, and rise for the invocation and the Pledge of Allegiance."

Assistant Doorkeeper Padget: "Let us pray. Dear heavenly Father, we give you all that we are on this day in this august Body. Please brush away our weariness so that we may be inspired in our work. Help us to discover new ways to reveal your love to all that we meet. Keep our minds clear and focused on all that we need to achieve. Lord, give us the wisdom to overcome difficulties and find solutions. I look to you and trust you are with us this day. These things we pray, Amen."

Speaker Evans: "We will be led in the Pledge of Allegiance today by Representative Olickal."

Olickal - et al: "I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

Speaker Evans: "Roll Call for Attendance. Representative Gabel is recognized to report any excused absences on the Democratic side of the aisle."

Gabel: "Speaker, let the record show that Representatives Blair... sorry, Blair-Sherlock, Burke, Jiménez, and Harper are excused today."

Speaker Evans: "Representative Keicher is recognized to report any excused absences on the Republican side of the aisle."

Keicher: "Mr. Speaker, please let the record reflect that Representative Ozinga will be excused today."

Speaker Evans: "Have all recorded themselves who wish? Have all recorded themselves who wish? Have all recorded themselves who wish? Mr. Clerk, please take the record. There being 112 Members answering the roll call, a quorum is present. Mr. Clerk."

Clerk Hollman: "Introduction of Resolutions. House Joint Resolution #9, offered by Representative Gabel, is referred to the Rules Committee."

Speaker Evans: "Representative Niemerg, for what reason do you seek recognition?"

Niemerg: "Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. A point of personal privilege."

Speaker Evans: "Please speak your point."

Niemerg: "Behind me, I have the high school government class for Mr. Repking, from Dieterich, Illinois. And I want to welcome them to Springfield and say enjoy your day and welcome to the Capitol."

Speaker Evans: "Representative Mussman, for what reason do you seek recognition?"

Mussman: "Point of personal privilege."

Speaker Evans: "Please speak your point."

Mussman: "Thank you. I would like to remind all of our new Members and all of our returning Members from the Congress of Women Legislators for COWL that we do have a welcome breakfast tomorrow morning, which is hosted by the credit union. So, that will begin at 8:30 until 10 a.m. If you need directions, let me know. It is conveniently located right near the State Capitol at the corner of Monroe and College Street. And again, welcome to our new Members to the Congress of Women Legislators."

Speaker Evans: "Representative Weaver, for what reason do you seek recognition?"

Weaver: "Point of personal privilege."

Speaker Evans: "Please speak your point."

Weaver: "I want to recognize the family of Mark and Karen DeDecker. This evening is the Illinois Pork Producers Association. They'll... they're honoring the Family of the Year, and I'm proud to say that they are in my district. Many of you may know that Illinois ranks number four in the country for hogs. We have 5.2 million hogs in the State of Illinois. The DeDecker family has had a long generation of hog farming in the last 75 years in Cambridge, Illinois. Mark, who's the father of the family, has been into agriculture for a long time. At a young age, he received first place in Illinois and fourth place in the nation for livestock judging. So, I'm very proud to have the DeDeckers with us here today. Thanks."

Speaker Evans: "Representative Halbrook, for what reason do you seek recognition?"

Halbrook: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. A point of personal privilege."

Speaker Evans: "Please speak your point."

Halbrook: "Thank you. Ladies and Gentlemen of the House, I rise today to honor the life and legacy of President Ronald Reagan. President Reagan was born February 6, 1911, just yesterday, 112 years ago yesterday, in Tampico, Illinois. The son of Jack and Nelle. In Reagan's early life, they settled in Dixon, the place where Reagan would recount his time there as the happiest times of his life. Known by the nickname 'Dutch',

Reagan would go out and play football at Eureka College and take parts in the drama club. Upon graduating in 1932 with a bachelor's degree in economics and sociology, he decided to enter radio broadcasting. Reagan covered the Chicago Cubs, a job that would eventually lead to his acting career debut. Reagan led a very successful acting career, earning roles in over 50 films. In service to our country, Reagan was also commissioned as a cavalry officer in World War II. After completing his military service and winding down his acting career, Reagan continued a career in television until running for Governor of California in 1966. The public reacted well to Reagan's personality, in particular to his apparent genuineness and self-depreciating sense of humor. When asked by a reporter how he would perform in office, Reagan replied, 'I don't know. I've never played a Governor.' Reagan won the election nearly... by nearly 1 million votes. During his two terms of Governor from '67 through '75, Reagan erased a substantial budget deficit and put major forward reforms in the welfare system. Reagan first ran for President in 1968, finishing third. Nixon's resignation in '74 put Vice President Gerald Ford in the Oval Office. Unwilling to wait another 8 years, Reagan challenged Ford with a blistering critique of his policies and appointments but lost the nomination by 60 votes. But then came the election of 1980. On Election Day, Reagan would defeat Carter, becoming the 40th President of the United States. In his Presidency, Reagan accomplished many things. He appointed the first woman to the Supreme Court, Sandra Day O'Connor, strengthened the U.S. military, promoted anti-communist policies, and contributed to the downfall of the Soviet Union, brought America out of a recession, lowered taxes, and fostered strong relations with European allies. Reagan was a strong conservative, who at first was not taken seriously because he was not a part of the political elite. Reagan turned his apparent liability into an asset by portraying himself as an ordinary citizen who was fed up with a government that had become inefficient and unaccountable. I believe we are a government like that today that matches that description. We can learn a lot from Reagan's leadership. Ladies and Gentlemen, if you would be so kind, let's take a moment of silence to honor this man who was proud to be from Illinois, our 40th President of the United States, Ronald Reagan."

Speaker Evans: "Please rise for a moment of silence in the honor of the President. Thank you. Representative Slaughter, for what reason do you seek recognition?"

Slaughter: "A point of personal privilege."

Speaker Evans: "Please speak your point."

Slaughter: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. It's important to know that today is National Black HIV/AIDS Awareness Day. Of course, all of us know that these diseases and infections impact people across Illinois, all across our country, all across the world. And as we celebrate Black History Month, as we honor Black History Month, I rise in particular to highlight the disparities amongst African Americans and to highlight that HIV/AIDS continues, continues to disproportionately impact African Americans. And we certainly want to use the month of February to celebrate our contributions, our achievements, and of course our culture. But equally

STATE OF ILLINOIS
103rd GENERAL ASSEMBLY
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

5th Legislative Day

important, we want to recognize the ongoing struggles that continue to plague black communities throughout Illinois. We all should know that... and can't get this stat out of my head... but blacks make up 14.2 percent of Illinois' population, but 48.8 percent, 48.8 percent, of existing diagnosis of AIDS in 52.1 percent, Ladies and Gentlemen, 52.1 percent of new HIV diagnosis. And just another interesting fact, Representative Ford and I have been talking about this all morning, and you've certainly heard this from me before, but these numbers and stats mirror our black prison population in Illinois. Fourteen percent of our population are African Americans, but fifty percent of the population in the Illinois Department of Corrections. In many ways, I think the challenge with HIV and AIDS exemplify and really are symbolic of the challenges that black communities across Illinois have with every social determinant of health, every social determinant of health, economic, education, public health, criminal justice. Our last big push from the General Assembly was in 2005... or maybe 2006 rather, with the African-American HIV/AIDS Response Act. And then in 2021, with the help and sponsorship of several Black Caucus Members, we were able to get funding dedicated to this initiative. But we need to do a lot more. We need to have more committed resources to address this ongoing challenge. Today, in the gallery just above me, by my left shoulder here, we have with us many of the leaders that are on the front lines addressing HIV/AIDS in the black community. They all represent black-led community-based organizations from across the state that specialize and prioritize HIV/AIDS programming and services. Together, as a network, they are the Black Leadership Advocacy Coalition for Healthcare Equity. Let's please give them a warm Springfield welcome as they continue to advocate and fight back against HIV/AIDS in the black community."

Speaker Evans: "Representative Davidsmeyer, for what reason do you seek recognition?"

Davidsmeyer: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Point of personal privilege."

Speaker Evans: "Please speak your point."

Davidsmeyer: "So, the last few weeks, my seventh grader... I don't often brag on my family, but I got to brag on this one. Last few weeks, my seventh grader and I have been studying the U.S. Constitution. And he had his Constitution test on Friday and got 101 percent. Yes, I know that doesn't work mathematically, but there were a couple of extra credit points. But I was so excited, and he knew how proud it made me for him to get such a good grade on the Constitution test. So, I want to give a shout out to Lennox for his great work."

Speaker Evans: "Representative Canty, for what reason do you seek recognition?"

Canty: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Point of personal privilege."

Speaker Evans: "Please speak your point."

Canty: "I wanted to take a moment to recognize the Buffalo Grove co-ed cheerleading squad, who made their way to Bloomington on Saturday this past weekend and took home their sixth state title for co-ed cheerleading, and I'm really proud of them. It was their 50th performance in this, the 50th year, of their high school. So, we should all take a moment and congratulate them for their hard work."

Speaker Evans: "Representative Ammons, for what reason do you seek recognition?"

Ammons: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. A point of personal privilege for the Black Caucus moment."

Speaker Evans: "Please speak your point."

Ammons: "Thank you. Many of us drive in the City of Chicago and we remember, as I grew up, driving down Congress Parkway. That is now called Ida B. Wells Drive in Chicago. And many people may have driven on this street and never knew who Ida B. Wells is. Mr. Speaker, if we can have attention in the gallery. Society thought it had her destiny predetermined. 'A light surely to be cast aside, voiceless and forgotten,' said Toni Preckwinkle on the day that they designated the street Congress Parkway for Ida B. Wells-Barnett. Ida B. Wells-Barnett is a woman who was ahead of her times. Ida B. Wells-Barnett was prominent journalist, activist, and researcher in the late 19th and early 20th centuries. In her lifetime, she battled sexism, racism, and violence. As a skilled writer, Wells-Barnett also used her skills as a journalist to shed light on the conditions of African Americans throughout the south. Ida B. Wells was born in Holly Springs, Mississippi on July 16, 1862. She was born into slavery towards the end, just before the Civil War. Once the war ended, Wells-Barnett's parents became politically active in the reconstruction era of politics. Her parents instilled into her the importance of education. Wells-Barnett enrolled at Rust College but was expelled when she started to dispute with the university's president. In 1884, Wells-Barnett filed a lawsuit against a train company in Memphis for unfair treatment of African American riders. She had been thrown off the train in first class, although she had a first-class ticket. Although she won the case on local levels, the ruling was eventually overturned in federal court. After which, Ida B. Wells began to use her journalistic skills around the issue of lynching as she witnessed a friend who was lynched. Wells-Barnett turned her attention to the white mob violence. She became skeptical about the reasons that were given for the lynching of black men and set out to investigate several of the cases. She published her findings in a pamphlet and wrote several columns in local newspapers. Her exposé about the 1892 lynchings enraged locals, who burned her press and drove her from Memphis, Tennessee. After a few months, the threats became so fierce that she moved to Chicago, Illinois. In 1893, Wells-Barnett joined other African American leaders in calling for the boycott of the World's Columbian Exposition. The boycotters accused the exposition committee of lacking... looking out for African Americans in a negative way and portraying the black community negatively. In 1895, Wells-Barnett married famed African American lawyer Ferdinand Barnett. Together, the couple had four children, and throughout her career, Wells-Barnett balanced motherhood and activism. She never stopped writing. Wells-Barnett traveled internationally, shedding light on lynching to foreign audiences. Abroad, she openly confronted white women in the suffrage movement who ignored the issue of lynching. Because of her stance, she was often ridiculed and ostracized by women's suffrage organizations in the United States. Nevertheless, Wells-Barnett remained active in the women's rights movement. She was a founder of the National Association of Colored Women's Club, which was created to address issues dealing with civil rights and women's suffrage. Late in her career, Wells-Barnett focused on urban reform in the growing City of Chicago. She died in March 25, 1931. And I close with, again, the words of our president of Cook County, President Preckwinkle. She said, 'Society thought it had destined.. it had predetermined her destination. A life surely to be cast aside and voiceless, her name forgotten.' We didn't forget her. Thank you."

Speaker Evans: "Leader McCombie, for what reason do you seek recognition?"

McCombie: "Thank you, Speaker. I would like to introduce two new Members. We have, filling the seats of previously Jim Durkin, John Egofske. Egofske. We all get that? And that is the 82nd District, so welcome. And also, we have Jason Bunting, who is replacing Tom... Tom Bennett's position on the 106. So, please join me in welcoming these two new additions to our Republican Caucus."

Speaker Evans: "Representative Egofske is recognized."

Egofske: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I just want to reach out to everyone here. It's an honor to be here. It's been a whirlwind. I just got sworn in a couple days ago. And not only is it an honor to serve with you, obviously, it's an honor to serve for all of Illinois, as well as the 82nd District. So, very proud to be here and looking forward to working with each and every one of you. And if you see me lost or wandering around somewhere, please point me in the right direction. So, again, thank you and really looking forward to serving with everyone."

Speaker Evans: "Representative Bunting is recognized."

Bunting: "I want to echo John's words, appointed here on Saturday.

I think the comment that has been made quite often is we are drinking from a firehose right now. And as I talk to some of the Republican Members of caucus that have called me from about 3:30 until this morning, that it was really going to hit home when we sit here on the floor. I am excited to be here, excited to get to work, and thank you for the opportunity to sit here with you fine men and women. Thank you."

Speaker Evans: "Representative LaPointe, for what reason do you seek recognition?"

LaPointe: "Point of personal privilege."

Speaker Evans: "Please speak your point."

LaPointe: "I stand today to uplift the work and the service of my good friend and my new Congresswoman, Delia Ramirez, who will make her first national speech tonight in both English and Spanish. Tonight, after our country's State of the Union Address, she is the one who will deliver a national post-State of the Union speech on behalf of progressive groups. So, I say to her, as your former seatmate, as your friend, as a co-Member of the Illinois House Progressive Caucus, we see you out there tonight and we are so proud of you. As we know, Congresswoman Ramirez began her electoral career in this chamber just over four years ago. She dug in and she accelerated our work on housing access for all, on homelessness, and on breaking the barriers to support for...

for our undocumented Illinoisans. She is the new Congresswoman in my area on the Northwest Side of Chicago. She is my new Congresswoman, and I have said again and again, as I've been out talking to neighbors about her, she began her career as a teenager, as a volunteer, at a nonprofit that works with the homeless in Humboldt Park and she went on to be the executive director of that nonprofit organization. So, tonight and today, I say to my neighbors, she is our rep at the highest level of government who is on the national stage, shaping our vision for the work ahead in a way that's going to put people first. So, on behalf of this chamber, I want to wish my Congresswoman, Delia Ramirez, all the best tonight. She is going to make us so proud. Thank you."

Speaker Evans: "Representative Guzzardi, for what reason do you seek recognition?"

Guzzardi: "A point of personal privilege, Mr. Speaker."

Speaker Evans: "Please speak your point."

Guzzardi: "I just want to follow up briefly on Chairwoman LaPointe's comments, just to say how excited I am to see Congresswoman Ramirez on TV tonight. She is also my Congresswoman now and was from the district immediately adjacent to mine. Representative Jimenez really wanted to speak, but she is unable to be here today. She's... represents that district now. But Congresswoman Ramirez has heard me tell this story before, but when she got elected and we sat down and met for the first time, I was very excited, thinking to myself, I'm going to be a mentor to this person. I'm so excited to show her the ropes and show her how things go and really help her figure things out. And it did not take me long to realize that the relationship was going to be the other way around, that Leader Ramirez was the one who was teaching me so much about public policy, specifically in the area of housing. The only reason that I'm the chair of the Housing Committee today is because of Leader Ramirez's guidance and mentorship in that area. She was just a remarkable force in this chamber for only a relatively short period of time, accomplished a tremendous amount, and is now off to Washington. And I think, in anticipation of tonight's remarks, those of us who know her or remember her presence here on the floor, we know that she's not going to pull punches. She is going to be honest. She is going to speak her truth and advocate for the needs of our community and folks like us all across this state and the country. So, it's a privilege to know her and to call her a friend, and I want to wish her the best of luck and encourage everybody to tune in and watch our Congresswoman tonight. Thank you all."

Speaker Evans: "Attention, Members. Session scheduled for Thursday, February 9, is canceled. Leader Mah is recognized for an announcement."

Mah: "Mr. Speaker, Democrats would request an immediate caucus in Room 114 after Session."

Speaker Evans: "Leader Keicher is recognized for an announcement. Leader Davidsmeyer."

Davidsmeyer: "Republicans would like to have a caucus right after Session as well, in Room 118."
