Fight Like Hell Screener: feature_93mins		Using original never-before-seen footage, Fight Like Hell is an immersive journey into the heart of the January 6 riot at the United States Capitol and the rapidly ascending Stop The Steal movement that preceded it. The true story of January 6 that's never been told.	2024	Trailer
Can't Feel Nothing Screener: feature_81mins Screener: broadcast_54mins		A man lies in bed illuminated by the blue-white light of his mobile phone. He doom scrolls past cute pets, outraged opinion pieces and haunting images from the world's hotspots – and he feels absolutely nothing. With curiosity and humour, director David Borenstein travels the world to investigate how bad things really are. Who is pulling the strings when the internet makes us angry, sad, horny or just plain indifferent? And is there any way back? From the American internet troll, a burnt-out superstar in the Asian influencer industry, a cynical fake-news factory in Eastern Europe, Russian state propagandists and an online dominatrix, this is an alarming contemporary diagnosis, with a bold attempt to also look at solutions.	2024	Trailer
The Big War Screener: broadcast_46mins		With the Middle East on the brink of war, reporters witness the fault lines of Iran's repressive regime, and how its power extends through proxy groups in the region – Hezbollah, Hamas, and the Houthis. Key figures, politicians and military insiders chime in on the challenge of defusing this geopolitical timebomb.	2024	Trailer
Denim Hunter Screener: feature_83mins Screener: broadcast_57mins		Viktor Fredbäck is an ordinary guy from Sweden, but with an odd and burning passion for old jeans. After fifteen years of collecting, he has an almost complete timeline of jeans, from the first Levi's jeans from the 1870s to flared pants from the 70s. One hundred years of jeans history. But he is missing a pair, a pair from 1880. Along the journey through the old American West, Viktor meets a series of unlikely characters, such as Indiana Jeans, Dynamite Dan, Cookie Monster and denim archaeologists Mike and Russ.	2023	Trailer
Eternal Sky Screener: feature_108mins		Set against the remote Andes in the Chilean Atacama desert and New York City, this award-winning film tells an intimate story behind one of science's most competitive races: the hunt for the origins of our cosmos. In a unique, lyrical parallel, it also delves into the lives of several Atacameño elders who bring an original and intriguing vision of the cosmos, offering viewers a mysterious, magical, and philosophical perspective that will captivate them.	2024	Trailer
Retribution Screener: broadcast_54mins		Ahead of the US election in November, Four Corners reporter Mark Willacy travels to Washington for a special two-part series. Part one goes inside "Project 2025"; the blueprint for a second Trump term and the army of recruits ready to carry out his orders. Meanwhile, White House insiders who witnessed the chaos of Trump's first term speak out, and strategy, security and defence experts warn of the impact another Trump presidency could have on America's institutions, its democracy, and the rest of the world.	2024	Trailer
Ice Maiden Screener: feature_101mins Screener: broadcast_55mins		This raw, powerful documentary takes the viewer right into the incredible world of brave sailor and solo adventurer Lisa Blair as she embarks on her voyage to be the first woman to sail solo, non-stop, and unassisted around Antarctica.	2024	Trailer

Ship Life Screener: feature_49mins		This unofficially filmed documentary captures the raw, sexy, and chaotic life of a cruise ship crew. Through rapid, revealing sequences, it showcases the highs, lows, and unexpected moments of working at sea.	2024	Trailer
The Bad Guy Screener: feature_69mins Screener: broadcast_54mins		After moving to the US, filmmaker and first-time mom Louise is in the midst of searching for a daycare when, just a couple of hours away, one of the deadliest ever school shootings unfolds. In an elementary school in the sleepy town of Uvalde, Texas, a teenager kills 21 people, including 19 young children. The Bad Guy examines life in a society that has entered a vicious cycle of excessive security measures due to a dangerous mix of fear and access to guns: a society that defends itself against international threats with the most powerful weapons, but collectively fails to protect the very young from its own citizens within its own borders.	2024	Trailer
Message From Sasha Screener: broadcast_54mins		Sasha Skochilenko is an artist from St. Petersburg, Russia. She was the first to speak out against the 'special military operation' in Ukraine: she changed the price tags in a supermarket and put information about the war on them. Now Sasha is in prison, facing trial.	2024	Trailer
Pipe Dream Screener: broadcast_49mins		For decades, Theo Jansen has toiled on the beaches of the Netherlands in his quest to make his beloved Strandbeests self-sufficient. But what happens when, as the artist pursues his dream to create new life, he starts to feel his own slipping away? As he contemplates whether he is the Strandbeests' master or slave, Theo races against the inevitable passing of time and his eventual death.	2024	Trailer
The Forever War Screener: broadcast_45mins		This war will be etched in the memories of generations to come: the brutality of Hamas's October 7 attack, and the ferocity of Israel's retaliation. In this Four Corners, ABC's Global Affairs Editor John Lyons asks the tough questions; challenging some of Israel's most powerful political and military voices about the country's strategy and intentions.	2024	Trailer
The Invisible Doctrine Screener: feature_75mins Screener: broadcast_56mins		George Monbiot deconstructs the roots, secretive propagation and deep impact of a doctrine that has played a profound role in transforming our economics, politics, environment, and how we've come to view ourselves.	2024	Trailer
Without Warning Screener: feature_66mins		On June 2018, the Fuego volcano erupted, there was no warning. Villages and neighbourhoods surrounding the volcano were buried. This is the story of those anonymous heroes who in the darkness generated by a pyroclastic cloud, allowed hope to rise again.	2024	Trailer
Tomorrow's Freedom Screener: feature_97mins Screener: broadcast_59mins		Made over the course of 5 years, Tomorrow's Freedom gains intimate access to the family of imprisoned Palestinian political leader Marwan Barghouti. Combining unfolding events on the ground, in-depth interviews and powerful archive spanning over 30 years, we see Marwan's evolution from activist to learned politician, uniting people and bringing hope to a flatlined peace process. If given a chance, could Barghouti pave the way for an inclusive, democratic and peaceful future?	2022	Trailer

Anywhere But Here Screener: broadcast_51mins		In the middle of a global Pandemic, refugees had begun taking the lethal journey via small boats across the English Channel. They are met by border force, vigilante civic journalists and housed in disused MOD barracks. 'Anywhere But Here' follows the journey from France into a village where an outraged community were joined by anti-migrant activists to resist their arrival.	2024	Trailer
America's Battleground States Screener: broadcast_53mins		Part two explores the key issues in the battleground states, travelling to the frontline of the immigration crisis in Arizona's wild southern desert, as well as an abortion clinic which sees protestors gather almost daily. In Georgia, political fractures have opened in Black communities that were once a largely united voice. Meanwhile, inside the Trump juggernaut, fans are steadfast in their belief that he will make America great again.	2024	Trailer
War Medicine Screener: broadcast_43mins		Ukrainian health workers wage a relentless struggle to rescue and treat thousands of wounded in extreme conditions. Under the bombs, in the trenches and in the operating theatres of dilapidated field hospitals, doctors, nurses and paramedics carry out a tremendous amount of work. Amputees number in the thousands, and their resilience commands admiration. This exclusive documentary is an impressive immersion in the lives of Ukraine's caregivers and soldiers. The horror is shown here in its raw reality.	2024	Trailer
Praying For Armageddon Screener: feature_97mins		With close quarters journalism, this feature documentary embeds with American believers who prepare for The Holy war and exposes how powerful megachurch pastors call for the 'final battle' that they believe will trigger the Second Coming of Christ. A deep dive into power and policy, this film unveils how politicians driven by faith embrace Israel as the key to their prophetic vision for the end of days. At any cost.	2024	Trailer
Palm Oil in the Land of Orangutans Screener: feature_71mins Screener: broadcast_59mins		The palm oil industry has long been criticized for deforestation and threatening wildlife. However, on Borneo, a partly Danish-owned palm oil plantation, United Plantations, is trying to do things differently. The film takes its audience along on this adventurous journey, allowing us to witness the "wild" nature flourishing again, the new burgeoning birdlife, the beautiful rainforest plants, and the orangutans thriving in their restored habitat. And poses the question that maybe industrial agriculture is actually able to coexist productively and peacefully with nature while meeting the modern world's growing demand for raw materials?	2024	Trailer
Four Died Trying Screener: feature_59mins		The opening instalment of an unprecedented multi-part documentary series, filmed primarily from the vantage point of their children, close associates, and witnesses to their assassinations. Four Died Trying considers the "turning" President John Kennedy, Malcolm X, Martin Luther King, Jr., and Senator Robert Kennedy were making in the last year or so of their lives. Were they embracing ever-broader conceptions of the struggle for peace, social change and economic justice, and what forces may have stirred in opposition? What lessons do their lives and deaths hold for us today, as the world once again trembles on the cliff of an uncertain future?	2023	Trailer
Bastard: The Legacy of a Criminal Screener: feature_83mins		At the age of 35, Pepe discovers that his biological father, whom he has never met, is convicted of crimes against humanity as one of the henchmen of the Pinochet regime. Pepe travels to confront his family's past, meeting his ailing dad in the last years of his life, as well as the families of those subject to his father's cruelty. A journey of healing, this intimate and generous film questions the limits and family and identity.	2024	Trailer

Eddy's War Screener: feature 103mins		For four seasons, Eddy van Wessel travels along the Ukrainian frontlines. As the most acclaimed Dutch war photographer for three decades now, he still seeks to capture the ultimate image – one that encapsulates the entire conflict, making all the struggles, traumas, and setbacks he has endured worthwhile. Filmmaker Joost van der Valk (known for "Satudarah – One Blood") shadows him, documenting how Van Wessel experiences and captures the war through encounters and interactions with Ukrainians. However, on the other side of the lens, one is not immune to the war's suffering.	2024	Trailer
Shattered By The Storm Screener: broadcast 45mins		In the summer of 2023, a tornado of unprecedented violence swept through La Chaux-de-Fonds, Switzerland. In just a few minutes, the storm destroyed everything in its path: buildings, forests, parks and entire roofs. But beyond the material damage, what happened to the victims? We tracked down the seriously injured and the relatives of a victim killed by a falling crane. Far from being cured, they continue to live with the after-effects of the trauma, and remind us that we are all at the mercy of the next climate-related catastrophe.	2024	Trailer
Crows: Nature is Watching Us Screener: feature 89mins Screener: broadcast 52mins		This documentary introduces the audience to crows as our chroniclers, pursuing the thesis that corvids have built up a collective knowledge of human history thanks to their extraordinary cognitive abilities. The image of the ravens Hugin ("thought") and Munin ("memory"), who accompany the one-eyed father of the gods Odin and inform him about the doings of mankind, stands for the central narrative thread of the film.	2023	Trailer

Norwegian Democracy Screener: feature_86mins		A deep dive into the fiery intersection of free speech and hate speech, spotlighting the contentious actions of SIAN, an Islam-critical group whose incendiary protests incite fierce debates and necessitate extensive police protection. Through exclusive access, the film intimately follows SIAN's leader, Lars Thorsen, and his associate, Fanny Bråten, alongside the endeavors of anti-racist activist Axel and his allies. As tensions escalate and violence looms, the documentary grapples with pivotal inquiries regarding the exploitation of free speech for spreading hatred and the intricate challenges confronting democratic societies in confronting extremism.	2024	Trailer
Unbound Screener: feature_91mins		Ballet dancers want to create their own company, open their doors to other traumatised, talented, survivors, and together, 'reclaim the stage'. It won't be easy. They're young and fragile. They have no money or experience. But in a run-down studio, with a gender-fluid ballet insurgent to direct them, they fight for the chance to dance once again, with defiance, hope and joy.	2024	Trailer
The Border Crossed Us Screener: feature_72mins Screener: broadcast_58mins		While a big white surveillance blimp constantly hovers over the small border town of La Joya, Texas, local police officers patrol the neighborhood looking for human smugglers. The region is littered with traces of people who have attempted to get into the US by crossing the Rio Grande. But rather than arresting the immigrants, the officers are gathering intelligence on the smugglers and smuggling bosses tied to Mexican cartels. Slowly the mutual dependence between police and smuggler reveals a system caught in a never-ending cycle, with the immigrant dangerously caught in between.	2023	Trailer
Unconditional Screener: broadcast_54mins		When introverted and solitary Yolanda meets Billy, an American convict, through a prisoner pen-pal website, she falls madly in love. No man has ever been more open with her, wanting to know her, understand her, help her. But he is behind bars, and they can communicate only through the letters they send each other. From the outside, it is difficult to imagine how one could fall in love with someone serving a sentence for such a heinous crime. Yet the love between the two seems unconditional, even as the extent of Billy's criminal life is chillingly revealed.	2024	Trailer

Refuge Screener: broadcast_40mins		Research shows that a majority of victims of family violence stay in dangerous situations for too long, fearing that their animals will be harmed, neglected, or killed. Pets are often used by abusive individuals as a method to exert control, a bargaining chip, to stop victims from leaving a violent home, or to force their return. The Pet Refuge, one of the first such shelters to open in the world, looks after animals until survivors find a safe place where they can then be reunited with their pets.	2024	Trailer

The Expert at the Card Table Screener: feature_84mins Screener: broadcast_57mins		S.W. Erdnase... The pseudonym of the most notorious hustler of the 19th century. His true identity is still unknown and makes for a mystery which leaves even the best illusionists in the dark. Today his book "The Expert at The Card Table" is known as the bible of card magic. The greatest magicians of the present set out on a journey to search for the lost genius. They tell stories that make your blood run cold. Even though there seems to be no proof for any of the countless myths and legends surrounding the writer the search makes one realise the true value of his work.	2023	Trailer
Ukraine's Stolen Children Screener: feature_64mins		Thousands of Ukrainian children, some of them orphans, were taken to Russia after the war started. Many were sent to recreational camps in Russia by their parents to escape the shelling; they were then stuck there, sometimes for months, waiting for their mothers to bring them back. Others were fostered into Russian families, led to believe that Russia had saved them after their parents had abandoned them. This remarkable doc explores the journey of these children, and the parents trying to bring them home.	2023	Trailer
Until the Last Drop Screener: feature_69mins Screener: broadcast_52mins		The documentary exposes the global cost and consequences of the destruction of nature. Life-giving rivers have been especially badly hit. Shot on location in Canada, the Netherlands, Italy, Switzerland, Albania, and Poland, conveys a strong message about one of the greatest threats to human civilisation: the growing freshwater crisis.	2023	Trailer
