Nik, you can add my signature. It looks like you're missing the words in red below

1. The briefing on Plaintiffs' Motion to Remand raises questions of federal jurisdiction that cannot be fully addressed within the twelve-page limit for reply briefs set forth in D.N.M.LR-Civ. 7.5. To ensure Plaintiffs can fully address these issues for the Court's consideration, good cause exists for a short three-page extension for Plaintiffs' reply in support of their Motion to Remand.

Nick, we agree not to oppose a three-page extension of the page limit for Defendant's transfer reply in exchange for your agreement not to oppose our motion for a three-page extension for Plaintiffs' remand reply. Attached is our draft motion and proposed order we plan to file by tomorrow at 11am ET. If you approve of the proposed order, could you please insert your /s/ signature in the signature block or give us permission to add it? Thanks.

Nik,

Griffin does not oppose your request for an oversized brief, provided that Plaintiffs do not object to Griffin using an equal number of pages in his reply in support of the motion to transfer to address any remand-related issues.

Good afternoon Nick,

Plaintiffs plan to move for a three-page extension of the page limit for our reply in support of our motion to remand, to ensure we can fully address the issues under consideration. Will Defendant consent? Happy to discuss.

Thanks,
Nik
