

OFFICE OF UNCLAIMED FUNDS

- New York State has $19 billion in unclaimed money
- Every day we return over $1.5 million to individuals, companies, non-profit organizations and municipalities
- We returned $504 million of lost money in State Fiscal Year 2023-2024
- Largest claim ever paid was $12 million in 2023 to heirs of an estate
- Average claim is $50-$100

Comptroller DiNapoli at the New York State Fair in 2023 returning lost money.

Source: Office of New York State Comptroller

Source of Funds (4/23 – 3/24)

- Largest amount unclaimed is about $9.2 million for an estate
- We oversee more than 51 million accounts with some funds dating back to the 1940s
- Some accounts can accrue 6% interest annually for up to five years, such as savings accounts and time deposits
- No fee to file a claim for your lost money
- Claims can be submitted online at osc.ny.gov/unclaimed-funds
- To see unclaimed funds by county: osc.ny.gov/unclaimed-funds/map