REPORT OF THE GOVERNANCE AND NOMINATING COMMITTEE

Report of the Governance and Nominating Committee

Chair-elect of the Governance and Nominating Committee John Fahey gave the Committee's report and led discussions on the scheduling of Regent Committee meetings and best practices for the Smithsonian advisory boards. The recently developed best practices for the Smithsonian advisory boards are aimed at standardizing basic membership structure and guidance given to the advisory boards across the Institution. He also reminded the Board that the fiscal year 2019 self-assessment will be distributed following the October meeting.

REPORT OF THE COMPENSATION AND HUMAN RESOURCES COMMITTEE

Report of the Compensation and Human Resources Committee

Chair of the Compensation and Human Resources Committee John Fahey gave the Committee's report and led the Board's discussion on a proposed pay equity analysis and a potential modification to the Committee Charter – both of which resulted from the Board's review of the Smithsonian's workplace culture earlier this year.

Pay Equity Analysis

As part of an effort to promote an inclusive and respectful work environment at the Smithsonian, policies and procedures related to sexual harassment as compared to best practices were reviewed. Based on the results of this review discussed at the June 2019 meeting, the Board directed its compensation consultant to conduct a pay-equity analysis to ensure internal pay equity among senior-level staff at the Institution, which will become standard practice as part of the Board's annual assessment of senior-level compensation.

Amendment to the Compensation and Human Resources Committee Charter

Mr. Fahey then briefed the Board on a proposed amendment to the Compensation and Human Resources Committee Charter, which would assist the Board in clarifying the types of information related to sexual harassment that must be reported to the Regents. The Board will direct senior management to implement the appropriate reporting procedures. The Committee will review a formal amendment to the Charter at its meeting in December for presentation to the Board in January.

REPORT OF THE ADVANCEMENT COMMITTEE

Order of James Smithson

Chair of the Advancement Committee Christine Udvar-Hazy presented one action item for the Board's consideration, a nomination to the Order of James Smithson, which was established by the Regents in 1983 to recognize inspirational and impactful contributions to the Smithsonian. Nominees for consideration are proposed to the Secretary by the Smithsonian National Board ("SNB"). At its July 2019 meeting, the SNB voted to recommend that the Board award Adrienne B. Mars with the Order of James Smithson, in appreciation for her long-standing support of the Smithsonian Institution. Upon motion duly made and seconded, the Board voted to approve the nomination of Adrienne B. Mars to the Order of James Smithson.

Smithsonian Gift Acceptance Policy

Mrs. Udvar-Hazy then updated the Board on the recommendations of the working group (“Group”) established to review the policies and procedures related to the Smithsonian’s gift acceptance. The Group reviewed current Smithsonian policies against peer information and industry best practices and recommended no changes to the current policy. The Group did recommend reporting to the Advancement Committee on gifts that have been elevated for consultation, further enhancing Smithsonian staff awareness of the gift acceptance policy, and developing guidelines for managing challenges that arise after a gift has been accepted.

Smithsonian Campaign

To conclude, Assistant Secretary for Advancement Rob Spiller briefed the Regents on early planning efforts for the next Smithsonian Campaign. Over the next year, the Office of Advancement will engage staff and volunteers to define parameters and strategies for the next campaign. Mr. Spiller shared that to ensure a comprehensive, collaborative, and coordinated approach, “Campaign Workgroups” would be instituted around key areas and led jointly by leadership from individual units and the Office of Advancement.

Following the report of the Advancement Committee, the Board adjourned to the luncheon program at approximately 11:37 a.m.

LUNCHEON PROGRAM: CURRENT ISSUES IN PHILANTHROPY

Luncheon Program:
Current Issues in Philanthropy

During lunch, Regents and Smithsonian staff convened for a program on current issues in philanthropy. The program featured a conversation between Mr. Rubenstein and Assistant Secretary for Advancement Rob Spiller. The discussion focused on changing donor expectations, developing cases for philanthropic support that resonate with donors and serve the mission of the Institution, and addressing increased donor scrutiny and reputational risk.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The Chancellor called the open session to order at approximately 1:52 p.m. and reviewed the remainder of the Board's business agenda.
