Chapter I. Sustainable development and financing for development

State-members should reinforce actions towards the implementation of the Addis Ababa Action Agenda as a strong foundation to support the implementation of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development. In particular, it is important to guarantee financial support for the implementation of the 2030 SDGs, and further sustainable efforts after the 2030 milestone.

Chapter II. International peace and security

State-members and the United Nations should prioritize initiatives to increase the participation of women in peace negotiations as well as conflict management. This would ensure the inclusion of a gender focus in the peaceful resolution of conflicts, as well as safeguard the rights of women and girls severely affected by conflict.

Chapter III. Science, technology and innovation and digital cooperation

All stakeholders should refrain from using, supporting or amplifying gendered disinformation and gender hate speech for any purpose, in particular to exclude women and girls from decision making processes. All stakeholders should strictly respect and protect human rights in all internet and social media platforms, in particular tech companies must enforce human rights as a permanent focus of all policies and protocols.

Chapter IV. Youth and future generations

Young people should be included in all global decision-making processes not only as representatives of future generations, but most importantly as part of the generations of today. Young people have the right to be heard.

Chapter V. Transforming global governanceAll stakeholders should refrain from using, supporting or amplifying gendered disinformation and gender hate speech to exclude women and girls from decision making processes at all levels, in particular in global governance.*
