Chapeau

Generocity advocates for Hong Kong to join global Official Development Assistance efforts, promoting sustainable solutions to poverty, water scarcity, and diseases.

Chapter I. Sustainable development and financing for development
Generocity emphasizes the need for sustainable development strategies and financing mechanisms in Hong Kong, advocating for increased contributions to global developmental aid. Generocity focuses particularly on SDG 1: No Poverty, SDG 4: Quality Education, SDG 8: Promote sustained, inclusive and sustainable economic growth, full and productive employment and decent work for all, SDG 10: Reduce inequality within and among countries, SDG 16: Promote peaceful and inclusive societies for sustainable development, provide access to justice for all and build effective, accountable and inclusive institutions at all levels, and SDG 17: Strengthen the means of implementation and revitalize the Global Partnership for Sustainable Development.

Generocity emphasizes the need for sustainable development strategies and financing mechanisms in Hong Kong, advocating for increased contributions to global developmental aid.

Chapter II. International peace and security
As a stakeholder in global peace and security, Generocity focuses on providing emergency aid and long-term developmental aid that fosters improved international relationships. This approach aims at building stronger bonds between countries and regions that do not normally have a strong connection. By contributing to the development and stability of these regions, Generocity seeks to create a ripple effect of positive change, indirectly contributing to global peace efforts.

This includes support for international organizations that focus on building necessary infrastructure, and providing other essential services in different regions. Generocity believes that such aid not only addresses immediate needs but also contributes to long-term peace and stability. By fostering environments where people have access to basic needs, education, and economic opportunities, the likelihood of conflict can be reduced. This approach aligns with Hong Kong's position as a global city and its capacity to influence positive change in the international community.

As a stakeholder in global peace and security, Generocity advocates for Hong Kong to take an active role in providing developmental assistance to encourage the formation of stronger bonds to foster improved international relationships. .

Chapter III. Science, technology and innovation and digital cooperation
Generocity supports the advancement of science, technology, and digital cooperation in developing regions, endorsing initiatives that enhance technological accessibility and innovation. Through overseas development aid, Generocity advocates for providing programs such as access to clean water, training for farmers to improve income and funding to fight the world's most devastating diseases. . This approach is aimed at fostering an environment where proven, effective innovative solutions can thrive, thereby driving sustainable development. By enabling access to proven technologies, education, and the latest medical treatment for disease, Generocity believes that young people in developing regions can be equipped to tackle local and global challenges, leading to transformative changes in their communities.

Chapter IV. Youth and future generations
Focusing on youth and future generations, Generocity endorses educational programs and opportunities for young people in underprivileged areas. Generocity strongly believes in the transformative power of education to provide opportunities and increase literacy among youth. By educating youth and fostering community building, the aim is to help them become self-sustaining and responsible global citizens. This includes drawing from the experiences and lessons learned from the effective altruism movement around the globe, emphasizing the impact of informed and compassionate actions on a personal and community level. Through these educational initiatives, Generocity seeks to empower the youth to create a sustainable and equitable future.
